IdentoGO® Invites Public to Enroll in TSA Pre✓® at PGA Constellation Senior Players Championship

June 3, 2015, Billerica, MA.

IdentoGO® by MorphoTrust USA, the leading provider of identity services, is providing travelers the opportunity to enroll in the popular TSA Pre✓® program at the PGA Constellation Senior Players Championship. The enrollment booth will be located in the Exposition Village, overlooking the 2nd fairway at Belmont Country Club in Belmont, MA, and will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Tournament participants and spectators are invited to register for TSA Pre✓®, the quickly growing security program that provides travelers a more convenient, expedited screening process at airports across the country. The program, which is available at 133 airports and for passengers of most major U.S. domestic airlines, costs $85 to cover five years of active status. This event is designed to expand awareness and publicize the TSA Pre✓® program's benefits to Boston-area residents and members of the golfing community.

To apply for the TSA Pre✓® program during the tournament, attendees should bring a passport or birth certificate and one additional government-issued ID along with a check or credit card to cover the $85 fee. To speed the process, it is recommended that attendees pre-register online at <http://www.identogo.com/ProductsServices/TSAPreCheck.aspx>. Attendees can also sign up at the tournament. For more details on enrolling at the tournament, see below:
